

Volunteer Management Training Offered:

April 23 @ 4:30 to 6:00 PM
505 N Columbia River Highway
St Helens, OR 97051

Volunteers are becoming more and more important as we realize the shrinking resources facing our county. One way to meet this need is with volunteers. While volunteers are a tremendous asset it is very important we know how to work with them. Come join us and learn about the issues surrounding volunteering.

Woody Davis, Oregon State Extension Educator will be instructing a 1 1/2 hour session on April 23 aimed at managing volunteers in the workplace. This training is being offered to those working with volunteers in conjunction with Volunteer Columbia. Topics will cover recruiting, retaining, training, acknowledging and awarding today's volunteers.

Space is limited to 20, RSVP to Volunteer Columbia at 503-366-8388

Come and take advantage of this free training.

Beverages and snacks will be available for that late afternoon wake up.
